

↑ Bollywood

International Day/Week

Black History Month

Around The World!

Chinese New Year

'So you can teach everything from The Waltz to the Military Two Step!'
Princess Anne at the official opening of Medway Park, 28th July 2011

'I love Bollywood dancing. It's so cool!'
'It's excellent, please have another.'
'I love Bollywood dancing, but it's hard,'
Bollywood Class participants at Twydall Primary, Spring 2012

'I really enjoyed the dance lessons with Sophie.'
'I liked the dancing because I could pretend to be a dragon.'
Year 7 students after their Chinese New Year dance workshops, Bradfields School.

We can offer many different dance genres because we have lots of teachers trained in various difference dance styles. The only limit is our imagination!

Cheerleading →

← Gumboot

Strood Academy

African Dance - This class could feature dances and movement from across Africa. Every area has its own type of dance. Gumboot is our favourite; you wear your wellies! There are some great Gumboot videos on You Tube.
Ballroom – Foxtrot, jive, waltz... Such a long list of these elegant partner dances.
Ballet – French or Russian!
Butoh – A Japanese dance style for 11+
Cheerleading – Have a look at the photo above for an example of this very American style.
Jazz and Street Dance – Also American we offer many of the street styles inc. Breaking, Hip-hop and poping.
Indian Dance - There are 100s of different Indian dance styles. We offer Bollywood, Kathak and South Asian dance.
Irish Dance – A high energy dance genre made famous by groups such as River Dance.
Salsa – Cuban, but also known as Latin American.
Zumbatomic – Zumba, but for children and young people!

Creative Dance – All classes have the opportunity for the participants to choreograph themselves. Creative Dance can also be used to explore a theme such as Chinese New Year.